

A diagram of a book layout showing three horizontal sections. The top section is divided into three parts: 'Back Cover', 'Spine', and 'Front Cover'. The middle section is divided into 'Page 1' and 'Page 2'. The bottom section is divided into 'Page 3' and 'Page 4'. Each section is enclosed in a light gray border with dashed green lines. The 'Spine' label is oriented vertically. The entire diagram is framed by a grid of black lines.
